

Wickford Extended Services Website Training Sessions

New Extended Services Website Going live Friday 5th February

For those who would like some help and guidance as to how to use the new Extended Services website (due for launch on Friday 5th Feb) the following drop in sessions have been organised across Wickford.

Please just come along and the Extended Services team will be on hand to give you a site tour and answer any of your questions or to help you register on line. The sessions are being held next week to allow you time to book activities on line before the deadline (8th February 2010)

However, booking forms are being accepted for activities for this half term if you wish to apply early. (Back page of newsletter, circulated to all schools on 28th Jan 2010)
