

The link below is for information about the NSPCC dedicated helpline to support children and young people who have experienced abuse at school and for worried adults and professionals that need support and guidance.

The Report Abuse in Education helpline comes after a high number of anonymous testimonials were submitted to the Everyone's Invited website, documenting abuse in all types of schools, colleges, and universities.

NSPCC dedicated helpline for victims of sexual abuse in schools

Young people and adults can contact the NSPCC helpline, Report Abuse in Education on 0800 136 663 or email help@nspcc.org.uk

This dedicated helpline will offer support to:

- all children and young people making current and non-recent disclosures of abuse
- any children or young people who want to talk about being involved or witnessing any incidents
- any adults who have experienced non-recent abuse
- parents and carers who have any concerns about their own or other children
- professionals who work in schools and need support in this or related issues

Please remember that this service is in addition to the Safeguarding policies and procedures that have always been available at The Bromfords School and Sixth Form College